IOMS STUDENT OF THE YEAR

The Illinois Osteopathic Medical Society requests nominations for its prestigious Student of the Year award. IOMS members in good standing may nominate one or more qualified persons for this award. Winner must be graduating from an accredited osteopathic medical school in the year they receive the award. Nominations must include the nominator's name and contact information and a brief statement explaining why the student's name has been proposed. Awards are presented at the Graduation Dinner on the eve of Commencement, generally late May of each year.

Nominations close April 15th of each year.
